

Name:

BAND: PURPLE – YEAR 2
Expected End of Spring

Congratulations! You are on Purple Band Books

While you are reading Purple Band Books you will learn to:

Range of Reading – Can read fluently, decoding is secure: e.g. Pupil can, without undue hesitation, read text.

Range of Reading - Can automatically and accurately blend alternative sounds for graphemes: e.g. know alternative phonemes for /er/: ir as in girl, ur as in turn

Range of Reading - Can, accurately, identify syllables within a word containing alternative sounds for graphemes. They can usually combine them to read a word: e.g. unicorn, gingerbread, handkerchief.

Range of Reading - Can read words with almost all common suffixes: e.g. enjoyment, sadness, careful, hopeless, badly.

Range of Reading - Can read almost all common exception words noting unusual correspondences: e.g. mind, pretty, prove, would, whole

Range of Reading - Can read most familiar words without undue hesitation and without overt sounding and blending.

Range of Reading - Can listen to, discuss and express views about a wider range of contemporary and classic poetry, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which they can read independently.

Familiarity with Texts - Can independently and accurately recount the main events in a wide range of age-appropriate stories, fairy stories and traditional tales.

Familiarity with Texts - Can usually recognise simple recurring literary language in stories and poetry: e.g. 'I'll huff and I'll puff', question and answer patterns in poems, refrains.

Poetry & Performance - Has repertoire of poems (approx. 10) and can recite some, with intonation to make the meaning clear.

Word Meanings - Can discuss and clarify meanings of words usually linking new meanings to known vocabulary: e.g. painkiller, blackberry, invisible.

Understanding - Can usually discuss the order of events in books and explain how items of information are related.

Understanding - Can demonstrate their understanding by drawing unprompted on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher.

Understanding - Can monitor their reading, checking that words they have decoded make sense and fit in with what they have already read and self-correct: e.g. child reads 'Hansel let the crumbs drop from his hands to make a tail ...' self-corrects 'tail' to 'trail'.

Inference - Can usually draw inferences based on what is being said and done: e.g. Great Aunt Al offers to pay for Sophie to have riding lessons so she must be a generous person. She might even pay for a pony!

Inference - Can usually modify their inferences by answering and asking questions.

Prediction - Can usually predict what might happen with responses linked closely to the story characters, plot and language read so far: e.g. I think Sophie is going to get all mucky because she gets too close to the animals and nobody will want to sit next to her on the bus going back to school.

Authorial Intent - Can discuss their favourite words and phrases and give reasons for their choice: e.g. 'I like the word 'magical' because it means the story might have spells and wizards in it!'

Non Fiction - Can explain how non-fiction books are used, they can independently identify key features and use these to help them find information: e.g. facts, photographs, diagrams, labels, index, heading.

Discussing Reading - Can contribute ideas and thoughts to discussion, remember significant events/key information and usually follow the agreed rules for effective discussion without support working in a group of 4–6: e.g. able to comment on preferences and offer plausible reasons for these.

Discussing Reading - Can explain and discuss their understanding of what has been read, acted out or listened to: e.g. 'The three little pigs were scared when the wolf knocked on the door because they hid under the table and cuddled together to be safe'.
